Exclusions

It is the school's hope that exclusion will be a very rare final sanction, when all other routes towards improved behaviour have failed. However, in extreme circumstances the exclusion process might need to be invoked. The governing body has decided that in exceptional circumstances that exclusion will be used as a sanction either as a:

- fixed term, or;
- permanent exclusion.

An exclusion would normally only be required if a child had:

- committed an offence outside the law
- put others (pupils or staff) at risk, including physical assault
- seriously affected the education of others
- made unfounded, malicious allegations against staff

The exclusion procedures will be initiated by the Head Teacher. The guidance set out in DfE's guidance 'Suspension and Permanent Exclusion from maintained schools, academies, and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement' https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/media/64ef773513ae1500116e30db/Suspension_and_permanent_exclusion_guidance_september_23.pdf will be followed. The Head Teacher will record this on CPOMS as well as with the local authority.
